College Welcomes Freshmen Today

Registration For Frosh Is Tuesday

New Students Urged To Complete Enrolment Task Today

Students not having attended Santa Ana college before will register Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, as has been indicated by the college of-

The work will begin at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, and students are urged to be on hand early, as it often takes new students several hours to register. It will facilitate matters, state school authorities, if students will have the college catalog, a fountain pen, and a pencil on hand so that they can do their work as neatly and swiftly as possible.

It is also necessary to have sufficient funds at registration to pay all fees, or difficulty will be encountered, it was stated. According to present plans, a few students may by special permission let fees go unpaid until later in the semester, but all grades and credits will be held up at the end of the semester until all bills are settled.

Books will not be purchased until after students have enrolled in their classes, when teachers will assign text books required in the course.

Y.W.C.A. To Sponsor Used Textbook Sale

Located as usual in the store just east of the library, the Y. W. C. A. will conduct its annual second-hand book sale this year, and will continue it until all books in stock are sold.

As many books as could be procured of the type that are to be used this year are in stock, and the store does all within its power to serve the students. A strict cash selling basis is from the store, according to Mrs. Jennie L. Tessmann, adviser of the Y. W. C. A. A small cash retaining If students will observe these fee may be put on a book to reserve they will avoid embarrassment and come, according to those in charge of the new student, school officials said this dance. it for a short time.

Frosh Must Wear Beanies And Carry Bibles

All incoming Freshmen are compelled to wear their "beanies" and carry Frosh bibles, which will be passed out during registration, according to a command issued by Miner Whitford, president of the associated stu-

Freshmen bibles, which are annually published by the Y. M. C. A., were issued under the direction of Austin Joy this year.

In addition to merely carrying the bibles, students should learn the Alma Mater song, all college yells, and be able to tell upon what page any informa-tion in the book lies.

Caution Drivers On Parking Laws

Pine street, the thoroughfare that runs between the junior college and high school, is only a one way street, and travel and parking must all be from the Ross Street entrance toward Cally Holden's Band the Parton exit.

Students are allowed to park cars on the streets bordering the school hut only on the side of those streets nearest the school. This ruling is made so that people living near the campus will not have a continuous line of cars in front of their houses.

There is also parking space for students on the north side of the drive between the "Y" hut and the football field. Students are forbidden retained, and no books can be taken to park in the numbered stalls on the south side of this drive, however, as

If students will observe these rules

A barrage of students hailing from 14 different states of the union and from 15 different cities in California are planning to enter Santa Ana college this year, according to information gleaned from registration certificates today.

Colorado leads in the list of out-ofstate students, sending four to Santa Ana, closely followed by Nebraska with three jaysee scholars. One student each comes from Oregon, Utah, North Dakota, Washington, Tennessee, Arkansas, Missouri, and Indiana, New York, and Pennsylvania.

Cities outside Santa Ana jaysee district sending students here are Escondido, Excelsior, Redlands, Pasadena, Chaffey, San Luis Obispo, Corona, and Oceanside.

Students from the above places graduated from high schools there, the greater number completing their courses last June. In the majority of cases the students, sometimes with their families, came to Santa Ana to go to college here. This year is by no means the first that has brought students from far away places, and there are many students returning this year for their second and third term that reside in other states. The college administration deems the fact brought out by the above information a genuine compliment for Santa Ana col-

Cally Holden's Laguna Beach Ballroom orchestra has been secured for Friday's Freshman dance through the efforts of Bruce Handy, chairman of the Bachelor committee that has charge of the dance.

This dance has always been one of the important social events of the entire Freshman days program, and them to attend some of the others, as with the added attraction this year of Cally Holden's orchestra, it should explain courses of study, reigstration, prove to be unsurpassed as a stu-dent function for many months to other things of vital importance to

College Executives Extend Greetings

The sole object of the board of education in Santa Ana is to facilitate the acquisition of well-rounded education for all of its young people.

You students who are entering Santa Ana's college have the opportunity of completing the first two years of a college career in an accredited school ranking among the highest in its class. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. Do your best in everything that you undertake, and the school executives will be fully satisfied.

Enthusiastically yours, Frank A. Henderson, Superintendent of Schools

The faculty extends to every student a most hearty welcome. Although some curtailment of our curriculum and services has been necessary through a reduced budget, we are in many respects better able to carry on our work than ever.

It is my hope that the students and faculty of Santa Ana Junior college may make a definite contribution to the advancement of our President's New Deal.

Cordially yours, D. K. Hammond, President of the College

It is always a pleasure to greet both new and returning students at the beginning of each year. The freshness and eagerness of students at this time of the year is a source of inspiration to those of us who meet them. It is our hope that the ambitions of every student may be fulfilled; that the determination to achieve may persist throughout the year in in spite of obstacles that may arise. We wish to help you surmount obstacles as they arise and realize your ambitions.

Faithfully yours,
McKee Fisk, Dean

The Associated Students of Santa Ana college wish that all visitors here today may receive the fullest possible benefit from a tour of the campus.

If there is anything that returning students can do to make your visiting days and your first few days of school more pleasant and more beneficial, feel free to call upon any of them at any time.

The real Don spirit of helpfulness and goodwill has prevailed years, and with your help it is destined to continue.

Miner Whitford, President of Associated Students

Whitford Is 26th Jaysee President

Miner Whitford, Associated Student president for the coming semester, was elected at the end of last year by a comfortable majority as Santa Ana college president number

With the creation of the Associated Student Body in 1921 and the election of its first leader, Robert Gerwing, that year, a long line of Santa Ana junior college student leaders was started. Mr. Gerwing, the first president, filled a term of a full year, but the next year the one semester term plan was initiated.

A complete list of student leaders for the life of the college is as follows: Robert Gerwing, Robert Green, Schuuler Biglow, Stanley Wheelock, Claude Hayward, Overton Luhr, Virgil Duncan.

John McCoy, who served as vice-president under Duncan, followed him the next semester as president. Mc-Coy is the present journalism and public speaking instructor in the jun-ion college here.

Students Will Meet Faculty At Reception

New Santa Ana junior college students will be the guests of the faculty at the annual Freshmen reception which is to be held in the Ebel clubhouse Friday evening, September 15, according to Miss Agnes Todd Miller, faculty social commissioner and English instructor, who is in charge of

The purpose of the reception is to have the students meet the faculty. Those attending will have the privi-lege of meeting each faculty mem-ber. All new students are urged to attend, as it is an opportunity not of-fered again during the junior college

Moavs To Hold Rush Parties In October

Limiting its membership to 30 women which are selected on their personality and scholastic standing, the Moav club stands as one of the major service organizations of Santa Ana college.

The major Moav function of the other college publications usually join year is a formal dinner dance at the the Press club. Non-journalists rethis year. It also sponsors mothers teas, rush parties, and this year will serve the Freshman day luncheons. This year the first Moav meeting will be September 18, and their first social events will be rush parties for prospective members, October 2 and

NEW COURSE ADDED

The History of Education course given by Mrs. Jennie L. Tessmann is a new offering this year.

Even Mrs. Tessmann did not know until peterday that she had been assigned the new course.

Mrs. Tessmann has for several years past has been the Astronomy instructor and will continue in that capacity. In addition to the above courses she also teaches several other history courses.

The local Zeta chapter of Phi Rho Pi was granted its charter in May, 1931. California Zeta visits a number of neighboring chapters, participates in initiation ceremonies, and sends delegates to the district convention at Pasadena in February. The local society entertains several other chapters at a series of dinners during the term, and sends representatives to each oratorical and extempore contest.

Tavern Tatlers Twice a month, the Tavern Tatlers, club of jaysee students interested in literature, meet in the college library to discuss literary works, give reviews of interesting books, and read their own original writings. In this way, and through the annual publication of Tavern Post, which contains only original work of students, the endeavors to foster an active creative interest in literature.

At least two meetings each semester are of a recreational nature, either visits to Huntington Library, the Pasadena Playhouse, or beach parties. The Tavern Post is to appear once each semester. To do this they must rely a great deal upon cooperation of incoming freshmen.

Press Club

Immediately following Freshmen
Days, open invitation to join the Press club will be extended to all who are interested. All contributors to the Tavern Post, El Don, Del Ano, and other college publications usually join the Press club Non journalists country club, which will be March 10 ceive an equal welcome. Interest is the clubs major requirement.

L'Hotel de Rambouillet L'Hotel de Rambouillet, or the French club, was founded in Santa Ana in 1917. The purpose of the club is to encourage the members to speak French more fluently. Meetings are held once a month and are conducted in French. Each year parties are given and some French show is attended. Students of advanced classes and those who are beginning the second semester of French are invited

German Club German club endeavors to give German students a finer knowledge of the arts, the language, and customs of the German people. Frequent meetings are held in the home of Miss Lella B. Watson, adviser. As occasions permit, the club attends the German cinema and play productions. At various times the club itself presents German stage productions and musical seminars. El Club Cervantes

El Club Cervantes, or the Spanish club, was organized in 1923 to afford an opportunity for students taking Spanish to practice. Meetings in which only Spanish is spoken are held every two weeks. Every student who has a knowledge of Spanish is urged to join this club.

O. K. Club
The O. K. club (Orphan Kids) was organized in 1928 to create a pleasant social atmosphere among students who are living away from home. Regular business meetings are held monthly, and special social events are planned. The club sponsors the Beard Growing Contest, held in connection with Fiesta Day.

American Association of Engineers

Junior Chapter 2 of the American Association of Engineers was founded Association of Engineers was founded in Santa Ana in October, 1931. Benefits which were to be received through contact with prominent engineers, study on field trips, and construction of individual projects, have been quite remarkable. Many noted men have spoken before them. Last year the club made trips to the Hoover Dam, the Standard Oil Company refinery at El Segundo, and several other places of interest. Individual project work is shown at the annual engineering show, which has aroused engineering show, which has aroused considerable favorable comment.

J. C. and H. S. Bands Combined

"By combining the high school and junior college orchestra and band this year it is believed a larger and more efficient group of musicians will be produced," stated Samuel J. Mus-tol, leader of the high school band and orchestra today.

Last year neither the junior college band or orchestra was large enough to do efficient work, continues Mr. Mustol, but by combining the two, both students and the school will be benefitted. Both high school and junior college students will receive the same number of music units that they did formerly did formerly.

Mr. Mustol urges that all students who can play an instrument try out for one of these groups. The school needs musicians and it is an opportunity for students to improve their musical ability, he said.

Refractions Cast Reflections

Let us offer the school a New Deal. It is a new school year. New things throughout the community, state, and nation are being brought forth, and you new students who are entering a school you have never attended before can start with a clean sheet and help bring about a new deal in our college.

Cooperation must be the basis for all successful enterprises, either political or educational. Success for our school demands cooperation between students, faculty members, and local residents. We, as students, influence strongly the opinions people have of our school. Not only must we merely obey rules, but we must do things that we know are right and that will uphold the honor of our school.

Refractions cast reflections. Beware of them.

Freshmen, Here Are the Keys to the Campus

With the opening of school at hand, Santa Ana college accords its freshmen a welcome that does not limit itself to words. With a series of events ranging from addresses to teas, including both the social and scholastic side of the varied jaysee program, new students will be made to feel the hearty welcome that the Sophomores and faculty annually extend to Freshmen.

You are given a chance during Freshman days to become acquainted with the students, faculty, and campus of the junior college. All these will comprise your surroundings during the school year, and we urge you to take advantage of the opportunity this week affords to enjoy and acquaint yourself with the many activities of college life.

College Traditions

Traditionally speaking the Don domain comes in for its full share of campus customs. Taking as their model the old California Don spirit, students of Santa Ana J. C. have woven their traditions in accordance with the romantic customs of the southland Dons and Donas.

The everyday traditions demand no noise that disturbs either high school or junior college classes; and it is expected that no freshman will have the gall to sport high school sweaters, pins (this includes honor society pins), rings or numerals. These traditions have lasted the founding of the school and every freshman is expected to know and keep them.

King's day and Fiesta day take the foremost roles among the classic traditions of this institution. On the last day of the Associated Student Body President's term, the Don prexy is endowed with the power to forgive past sins, cut throats, dismiss class, in fact he is a real King of Kings upon King's day. Fiesta day is an opportunity to dress in the gay garments of ancient Spain and hie ye to ye goode olde Bulie Fight. This day also gives prospective students from surrounding schools a chance to become acquainted with the spirit and activity of J. C. life.

And we earnestly tell you that it is absolutely imposseble to take advantage of all that college has to offer without being a member of the Associated

College Library Purchases Many Books This Year

By Charles Downie J. C. bookworms are due for many happy hours this year, if the array of books that will garnish the shelves of the library upon its opening this fall are any indication of what is to come. Still in their original wrappings and bearing German and British stamps, the books will be ready for use shortly after the opening of school.

Among the most noteworthy of the new copies are "A Modern Comedy" by John Galsworthy; "A Flight Into America's Past" by Marie Beale; and "Genghis Khan" by Harold Lamb.

"A Modern Comedy", by Galsworthy, is best described in his own words. "An age which knows not what it wants yet is intensely preoccupied with getting it, must evoke a smile, if rather a sad one.

"A flight Into America's Past," by Marie Beale, is a thrilling book drama of the history of the ancient Inca and Mayan races. Crumbling ruins, mystic signs and drawings, ponderous un-dergrounds tombs not unlike the catacombs of Italy, overabundant jungles, Inca Gold, all blend themselves into what Marie Beale has chosen to call a flight into America's past.

Genghis Khan once more lives out his more than full life in Harold Lamb's story of that name. Napeolean said of him, "I was not so lucky as Genghis Khan". A Mongolian, nomadic outlaw, sought after by every officer in Asia, he rose to greater heights than Alexander the Great ever dared dream of, greater heights than Napolean could imagine, to rule more than half the then known world. Yet, after his far reaching conquests, after making peace and order where there had been only violence and vandalism, after making a poor continent prosperous, he wondered why he had done it. Fierce, nomadic, mighty, called Scourge of God, he did not know himself.

The remaining new volumes in the library include the following: Second Vol. of James Truslow's "The March of Democracy" "Mad Anthony Wayne", by Thomas Boyd; "A Short History of Europe 1500-1815", by Hyma, "Eleventh Anual of Advertis-Hyma, "Eleventh Anual of Advertising Art", sponsored by Art Directors Club,; "The French Revolution and Club;; "The French Revolution and Napolean", by Gershoy; "A Great Rich Man", by Louise Schuts; "Andrew Jackson", by Marquis James; "As Told by Business Girls", by Quayle, "Will They Pay?" by Dorsey Richardson; "The Stars for Sam", by W. Maxwell Reed; "The Pony Express", by Arthur Chapman; "Shakespeare Under Elizabeth", by G. B. speare Under Elizabeth", by G. B. Harrison; "English Burlesque Poetry" by R. P. Bond; "The Animals Came to Drink", by Cherry Kearton,.

Over The Editor's Desk

This edition of El Don is dedicated solely to you, tenative Freshmen, and we hope you get something out of it. In like manner these three days this week are solely for your entertainment and instruction. The college feels that the impression made upon its visitors these first days are the ones that last. We want and expect you to like our college now, and throughout the year.

In former years the paper has taken pains to explain that Santa Ana college is really a college and not just glorified high school. We don't expect you to think that you are still to be in high school when you come here, or you would stay in high school in the first place. So remember, you are not to even so much as think that this faintly resembles high school. It is college.

You freshmen had better keep your yes open around college these next few days. . . . if you don't you are liable to run into something.

And one of the things that you may run into is a sign telling you what an advantage it is to have a student ticket. Open your eyes and read that sign, and find out what we have to say about the tickets here in El Don. After you have read all this we don't have to tell you what to do next, because you will see that it is the opportunity of a lifetime for saving money. It is all the same as throwing $8.50 away not to buy a student

Those of you who have seen El Don before will notice that it is entirely different than formerly. plan to print a small paper like this all this year, or at least for the first semester.

Last semester finances prohibited us from publishing the large paper of former years every week. Instead of making a paper like this one, we simply ran the large paper only every two weeks. It proved very unsatisfactory both to El Don staff and to the college.

This year we are still unable to publish the paper on its former propensities, but we feel that by running a small paper once every week we can give you students a better paper. In a few weeks it won't seem so tiny to you, and I think you will agree that it is better than a biweekly.

If you are new students in Santa Ana college it will be worth your while to attend the faculty reception Friday night, September 15, and meet your instructors.

games and entertainments, and perhaps save a little money. But again we say that you are here to get an education, and by attending social functions sponsored by the college you are getting a social education that is just as valuable as academic learning.

When you have graduated from college you can look back on all the good times you have had at formals, balls, dances and parties . . . if you get a student ticket now. Otherwise your only retrospect will be upon blank years, cluttered up with school books.

For the first time in the history of the college, ticketbooks are on sale during Freshman Days. We urge you to buy one as soon as possible as it will be $7.00 well spent.

Once the purchase is made you will never regret it as student officials have planned the year's program in such a way that you will be amply repaid for the small sum expended. Become a true blue member of the Associated Students

Students. Of course you can simply go to classes, and not go to today! Buy your ticket now!

Mr. McCoy was president of the associated students while attending here, and held many other positions of prominence in scholastic activity

In addition to the regular public speaking and journalism courses that were offered last year, a course in argumentation and debate will be offered for debate students this year that has been scheduled in the college catalog but has not been offered for several semesters. Mr. McCoy will al-

Jaysee Assembly Method Changed

There will be regular compulsory assemblies this year, according to Dean McKee Fisk, at which programs of interest will be presented to the entire student body, rather than to separate divisions.

Divisional assemblies will be conducted this year only on very rare

Last year students were permitted to sit wherever they wished during assemblies, but at times objections were raised due to disturbances by a few students. If this continues this year, states Mr. Fisk, students will be seated in such a way that they will not be thus tempted to disturb others. Assemblies will start this year the same as last, but if it is found that students cannot be trusted to seat themselves without disturbances, some seating arrangement will be put into force, Mr. Fisk said.

Student Ticket Value Increased

Associated student tickets offer an even greater saving in student functions this year than ever before, stated Ted Meece, student treasurer,

These ticket holders may get their student directories, frosh bibles, six noon dances, and beanies free, in adddition to the many advantages that the tickets usually offer.

"It is impossible to get the full value out of college life without being a member of the associated students," states Miner Whitford, president of the associated students. Besides being admitted free to the rooters section at all athletic contests, associated students get reductions on practically all college activities. It is impossible to belong to any campu club, participate in conference athletics, or hold student office without being an associated student member.

STOP, FRESHMEN!

You could ask any college man or woman and find this out, but just to save your time and put you on to the ropes as soon as possible, we'll tell you: That the Santa Ana Book Store has the Junior College text books, new and second-hand, and all the other supplies that you'll need! That we have been helping Junior College freshmen get off to a good start for over ten years! That this store is a traditional hang-out for Junior Collegians and Collegiennes (short for Dons and Donas!) That we are noted for our kindness to pocketbooks, and have fought many a brawl with manufacturers and publishers to save money for students! That we like the student business, do everything we can for students, and want every new Freshman to come around and say "Hello, and here's what I want!" Signal's changing, time's up, so. . . . . .

NOW,

Did We Get a Fountain Pen For You

You're asking us! Here's a brand new pen that will run this race all by itself this year! . . . a "scratch" entry! Vacuum Sackless fountain pen. Holds TWICE the ink the ordinary pen does. Easy to fill, and you can SEE the ink inside! The price is just

New Students Desk Lamps!

A lamp you'll want the minute you see it! Saves your eyes, makes studying and reading and working a lot easier! Desk lamp of all metal, adjustable to any angle or part of desk, antique bronze finish. It's a beauty and worth more than $2.95

3-bow Drawing Intsruments

We can give you a threebow drawing instrument, imported set, complete at $4.50. And other sets at varying prices. The above is this year's feature value.

Also, all Triangles, T-Squares, Drawing Boards, Slide Rules, supplies, and so

All Other Supplies

Whatever you want, we have it! We used to say "or will get it," but we have worked so closely with students these many years that we know what they need and we know where to go to get it at the best possible price!

Secondhand TEXT BOOKS

Here's something we went out after a few years ago and worked out connections whereby we would get supplies of second-hand text-books that we could sell at greatly reduced prices. This department has been very successful, has saved students a lot of money, and we invite you to use it.

Many of these text-books look almost like new, and the "contents" are still there in all of them!

13 Veterans Aid In Don Quest For Eastern Division Grid Rag

COOK HAS HOST OF TALENT, BUT WILL THEY PULL BONERS? SQUAD CAN HAVE THREE CAPTAINS ON FIELD AT SAME TIME; QUARTERS LEGION

By Jack Pegues Paced by their tackle-captain, "Bomo" Koral, thirteen veterans, all boasting wound stripes, will trot out on the grass of East Poly field along with a host of graduated high school luminaries September 5, the date set by Bill Cook, the chunky ex-Trojan who guides the football destinies of Santa Ana junior colege, for his initial football drill of the current season.

As in the past this figure will be augmented by additional talent from other Southern California junior col-

As to whether the Dons will be a threat for the Eastern Division grid pennant, no one seems to want to say, least of all Chief Don, Cook. And your local correspondent doesn't blame any of them for their attitude. Take a squint at the set-up after the scramble for the championship last year. Riverside and Santa Ana were ballyhooed to the skies as THE teams ballyhooed to the skies as THE teams of the year. The Bengals finished in the top spot and the Dons, losing all of the fire that carried them to an unheralded victory over the Trojan Frosh, dropped four of their six conference games and ended the season uncomfortably near the cellar. This year the Dons will have about the same class of material as last, and if yours truly predicts a prosperous year for the local institution they are sure to make a monkey of him by pulling a series of boners and lose themselves some games they have no right los-ing. On the other hand if it is broadcast that Santa Ana will have "just another football team" they will be mean enough to put themselves around the top.

Cravath Brings Troy Frosh Here September 23

For the second time in the history of athletic relations between the two schools the University of Southern California Freshmen and the Santa Ana junior college meet on local soil for their annual gridiron duel. The date for this year's tiff is the nite of September 23, and the contest is to be staged under the arcs at the recently turfed Municipal Bowl.

Last year head man Bill Cook and his porkhide playboys became the second junior college ever to chalk up a win over the Peagreenies, thus, for a time, catupulting themselves in-to that unenviable spot as the team to beat for the conference flag.

Troy's Frosh this year boast several former Santa Ana Hi gridiron greats not the least of whom is their new coach, Jeff Cravath.

Reopening of Gym Reveals Changes

Sport satalites are going to get a pleasant surprise when they first enter Andrew's gymnasium due to the converting of the corrective room into an athletic commisary. Athletes will find their corrective base in the former hygiene room.

Big Year Due In Feminine Sports

Women's athletics, an integral part of any strictly modern educational institution, gets its full share of atten-tion and allotment of time at the Santa Ana junior college, thanks to a liberal Board of Education.

Sophomores and Frosh are split in all sports except tennis and swimming, thus assuring the college women an interesting intra-mural series throughout the year in the six different sports sponsored by the Physical Education Department.

Playdays Sponsored Added to this are various playdays interspersed throughout the year and inter-collegiate contests in hockey and baseball.

According to all reports this year should be a banner one in women's sports due to the surprising number of Freshmen who earned block letters and the even larger number who won script monograms.

First semester sports include basketball, coached by Mrs. Foote, swimming and hockey, also under the di-rection of Mrs. Foote. Miss Zena Leck has charge of volleyball.

Tennis, swimming, and baseball comprise the second semester activi-

COSTA MESA TURF AFFORDS SOFT SPILLS

(Continued from page 7) Beginning over a week ago the bowl has been turfed for the most part though turfing cannot be started upon the nite baseball field it is reported. The grass will cover approximately one and a quarter acres when completed. The entire football field will be covered from ten to twenty feet on either side.

This will be an ideal playing field as it is already equipped with lights for night games and has a seating capacity quoted at 8,000. Both high school and junior college authorities have decided to arrange to have the respective schools meet opponents upon the Costa Mesian sod of the bowl. Sodding will be completed for the Don-Trojan Frosh clash taking place September 23.

VETERANS AID DON LEAGUE TITLE QUEST

(Continued from page 7) Cook will be especially blessed with quarterbacks this year as four of last year's candidates are returning with more sure to turn up from the freshmen class. Head and shoulders above the rest of the signal yowlers is Santa Ana's own Fred (Porky) Bell. An all Coast League halfback with Santa Ana Hi's Southern California champions two years ago, the dusky speedster went on to jaysee and last season was a leading contender for allconference honors Right behind Bell come three quarterbacks of like ability, namely: Bill Bouldin, Bill McDaniel, and Charles Bowden, all vets. Bowden has already indicated that Bell will have to step fast to stay number one.

Dons Have Three Captains Santa Ana's Dons will enjoy the distinction of having three captains on the field at one time this year. This phenomena of sport is due to the fact that Jack Fredericks, elected captain last year to replace Jim Hall, has another year of eligibility and Hall, who had been previously elected to captain last year's squad, injured his knee and had to drop out, thus saving his eli-gibility for another year. Of course, Koral, captain-elect for this year, will be in the lineup and if my arithmetic is correct it adds to three, (correct me if I am wrong, Mr. Holmes).

Cook already has two vets groomed for the pivot spot in Ray Hoar and Bruce Handy. Both earned monograms in '32.

R. L. Brown To Sing On Today's Program

All student talent was procured this year for entertainment during Freshmen days programs with the exception of several songs by Robert L. Brown, proprietor of the Santa Ana Book store.

Mr. Brown has appeared before many Santa Ana audiences for several years, and those who have heard him express unanimously their praise of his work.

It is Mr. Brown who awards several prizes for work in the Tavern Post, literary publication edited by the Tavern Tatlers.

Students Should Read Bulletin Board Notes

El Diario, official daily publication of the college, and the bulletin board should be watched throughout the year for important announcements from clubs, faculty, and private indi-

These two are the only quick methods of communication in so large a body of students. Official and personal notes may be left on the bulletin board at any time. El Diario is left each morning at the end of the hall for the students.

El Don will appear on the campus each week and carry the very latest news of all college activities.

Koral and Kroner and Miles Norton from Santa Ana Hi, Cook should not worry about the all-important tackle Tustin sends its ace halfback, Harold MacIntyre, who Bill Cole, Tustin Hi mentor, predicts will make Cook's first string as a freshman. MacIntyre burned up the Orange League last year and with a team to back him should go places.

Fullback, a key position in the Jones system, is apparently all sewed up by Harold Welty, sensational ex-Orange leaguer who piloted Orange Hi through three successive Orange league championships. With Welty and Bell in the same backfield and a strong line to furnish the interference Santa Ana's Dons should be dangerous to say the least.

ATTENTION VISITORS!

Don't forget to study your frosh bibles carefully, freshmen, because you are liable to be asked to recite From Orange Hi comes 196 pound from it almost any time. And if you school and with two years of junior college eligibility ahead of him. With
